NO PICNIC AT LAKE

February rains nearly caused Del Monte Lake to spill over onto Garden Drive. The lake's floodwaters have receded during the sunny first week of March.

NEW DENTAL PLAN BEGINS APR 1 BRIEF SCHEDULED INGERSOLL-122

A representative from Delta Dental will give a briefing on the new Delta Dental changes on Wednesday, Mar. 10, from 7 to 8 p.m., in Ingersoll - 122.

The briefing is open to all active duty military and their family members.

For reservations contact A. B. Barronmiller, FSC ext. 3060.

Details of an expanded Active Duty Dependents Dental Plan (DDP-Delta), according to the "Newsletter of the National Military Family Association, Inc., have been released.

Implementation of the expanded plan is expected to begin April 1, 1993. The monthly premiums will be $9.65 for a single family member and $19.30 for two or more family members.

Preventive services currently covered under the plan will remain the same except for sealants for children which will be covered at 80 percent instead of 100 percent.

Added benefits include: endodontics (root canals); periodontics (gum problems); prosthodontics (crowns, bridges, dentures); oral surgery (including wisdom teeth) and orthodontics (braces).

These added benefits will be covered at least at the 50 percent level. The annual maximum per beneficiary for all services except orthodontics will be $1,200. In other words, DDP Delta will pay $1,200 per year for all the services it covers (except orthodontics) for each family member. Any expenses above the maximum will be the responsibility of the family. The lifetime maximum per family member for orthodontics will be $1,500.

All eligible sponsors (those assigned in CONUS who have 24 months remaining in service) will be automatic (CONTINUED PAGE 3)

AIRLINE REFUNDS DEADLINE EXTENDED

A new deadline of June 1, 1993 has been established for filing refunds based on a class-action lawsuit against numerous major airlines due to the airlines violating antitrust laws regarding ticket prices.

Claims may be based on flights taken between January 1, 1988 and June 30, 1992, which were paid for by the individual and not a business or other entity.

NPS PROF. HEADS LOCAL IUS CHAPTER

The Inter-University Seminar on the Armed Forces and Society has recently begun a Pacific Coast Chapter.

The chapter, formed by NPS Prof. Mark Eitelberg of Administrative Sciences, will hold four or five meetings during the year at NPS to coincide with visits by guest speakers. "Chapter meetings are expected to draw attendance from several organizations and institutions on the Monterey Peninsula and surrounding areas," said Eitelberg. "Currently, there are over 50 local (CONTINUED PAGE 3)

IN MEMORY

FYI

MARROW DRIVE GIFT OF LIFE

A NPS student's niece was diagnosed with leukemia in May 1992.

After numerous chemotherapy and radiation treatments and a failed bone marrow transplant with her own bone marrow, Ashlyn is desperately searching for a donor to save her life.

SCIENCE FAIR

NPS volunteers conduct safety reviews for students entering last year's Monterey County Science & Engineering Fair. Volunteers are still needed for the 1993 fair. Here are the dates, times and tasks: set up - Thursday Mar. 25 from 9 a.m. to noon; registration - Friday 3 to 6 p.m.; arrangements and phone calls - Saturday 2 to 7 p.m. If you can assist during any of these time periods, call Sherrill Ash, Monterey Bay Aquarium, 649-6466.

A Marrow Donor Drive takes place Sunday, Mar. 7 (and Sunday, Mar. 14) from 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. and Tuesday, Mar. 9; Thursday, Mar. 11; Tuesday, Mar. 16 and Thursday, Mar. 18 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. The blood draws will take place in the Quarterdeck Lounge of Herrmann Hall.

A small amount of blood will be drawn to be Human Leukocyte Antigen (HLA) tissue typed by the C.W. Young Marrow Donor Center in Washington D.C to be entered into a registry.

If it is determined that you are a potential life-saving candidate, you will be asked to donate bone marrow through a simple procedure.

Minorities are especially encouraged to sign up since bone marrow is inherited in the same ways that eye and skin color are.

For more information call 656-2660, 656-2241, 646-1075 or E-Mail 7245P.

FULL TUITION SCHOLARSHIPS OFFER

Five full-tuition scholarships for the 1993-94 school year to five qualified dependents of active military personnel are being offered by the Armed Forces, Admiral Farragut Academy. The academy is a college preparatory Honor Naval School with campuses in New Jersey and Florida.

The scholarships, which could range from $5,000 to $12,000 depending upon boarding or day status and campus location, are open to applicants in grade levels 9 through 12 for the school year starting in August 1993.

As an Honor Naval School with Junior Reserve Officers Training, Admiral Farragut Academy may nominate a number of its cadets from both campuses to the U.S. Naval Academy, the U.S. Military Academy and the U.S. Air Force Academy. Also, graduates may earn Naval ROTC scholarships to colleges of their choice.

For more details contact Oliver White at FSC ext. 3060.

NAVAL INSTITUTE ESSAY CONTEST

ANNAPOLIS MD - - With U.S. military forces in Somalia, the ongoing threat of Saddam Hussein and a new administration developing its plans, discussion of future warfighting capabilities is more important than ever before.

The U.S. Naval Institute is sponsoring its fourth warfighting essay contest. All aspects of warfighting, including doctrine, tactics, hardware, training and mental preparation are potential topics. Entry in this contest is not limited to active-duty or military writers.

The Naval Institute will award cash prizes of $1,000, $750 and $500 to the authors of the three best essays entered. Entries must be postmarked no later than April 1, 1993.

For further details call Jennifer Paytas at (410) 268-6110.

SPORTS & RECREATION

CARNIVAL LA MESA SCHOOL

Get ready leprechauns. The La Mesa Elementary School P.T.A. Carnival is coming Saturday, Mar. 13 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. on the school grounds.

According to Luann Powers, La Mesa Elementary School P.T.A. representative, kids of all ages will enjoy the class-sponsored games with prizes, food booths and donation drawings for "food" "sports" and "outing" prizes.

Chili and cheesecake contests will be held with special prizes to the winners, said Powers. "Anyone interested in trying out that favorite recipe is welcome to enter. If you find homemade crafts or baked goodies, plants or books to tickle your fancy, the Country Store will provide just that."

Sales of reduced price tickets for games and donation drawings will take place during the week before the carnival from March 8 through March 12 at the elementary school between 11:30 a.m. and 3 p.m.

For more information or to volunteer contact Janet Geldermann at 647-1887 or Luann Powers at 655-9624.
